Hollywood Divine produces an international faith and family film festival that is available for sponsorship annually. This event attracts audiences composed of attendees of all ages; film makers including producers, directors, and actors; celebrities; and musicians. Hollywood Divine supports, encourages, and inspires filmmakers to produce outstanding, quality content as they express their creativity using film to show the love of God.

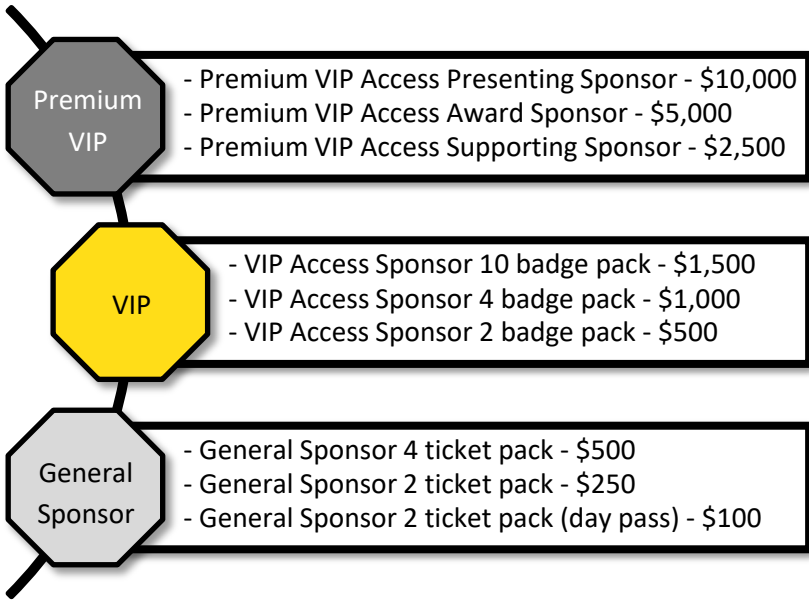

This year we are honored to support Rocky Mountain Christian Filmmakers Camp through portions of VIP sponsorships. RMCFC provides hands-on and online training for the next generation of filmmakers.
